

Kathryn Sullivan: At Home

Program Notes:

At Home is a look into obsessive-compulsive behavior, combining music, text, and dance. Conceived and choreographed by Kathryn Sullivan, the piece contains various monologues, spoken by an actor/dancer, with improvised music woven in by the violist/dancer. The work was premiered by Betina Hershey and Melia Watras at the Merce Cunningham Studio in New York City in 2002.

--Michael Jinsoo Lim